Computer Disposal

Network Integrators & Consultants, Inc.

Are you tired of trying to find a place to dispose of your old equipment? Having trouble finding charities that want old equipment? The computer disposal service offered by Network Integrators & Consultants, Inc. (NICON) can solve all your headaches. For a nominal green fee, NICON will dispose of your equipment in an environmentally friendly way. Many people are unaware that many components of your old equipment, such as monitors, cannot be put in dumpsters or other conventional trash pick-ups. The government actually fines violators for improper disposal of these items. Be environmentally friendly and call a representative today!
